OBITUARY

Mrs. Sosamma John was born on September 1st 1953 to Late. Mr. Yohan-nan Abraham & Mrs. Annamma Abraham (Chalumattukavil, Chettomkara, Ranni). After matriculation from S.C. High School, Ranni; she completed her technical education.

She married Mr. K. Joseph John (Kananilkumkalayil, Theodical, Thiru-valla) on October 19th 1979. They had a wonderful life together and were blessed with a son and a daughter. She accepted Jesus Christ as her per-sonal Savior and Lord of her life at a very young age and was committed to the Word of God.

Along with her family she migrated to the United States in 1999. From that time onwards, she had been an active participant in all spiritual activi-ties of St. Thomas Evangelical Church of India, Philadelphia Parish. Dur-ing the past few years, God had given her the wonderful gift of praying unceasingly for those who were going through problems and difficulties in life and she had always been a comfort to those who knew her.

Mrs. Sosamma John is survived by her mother(Mrs. Annamma Abra-ham), Husband (K.Joseph John), and children (Jinson&Raji, Jincy&Liju). She was blessed with a grandson, Adan. Her family includes: Late. Mr. C. A. John (Kunjumon), Mr. C.A. Thomas (Thomachen), Mr. Abraham Abraham (Joy), Late. Mrs. Rachel Babu (Kunjumol), Mrs. Saramma Mam-men, Late. Mrs. Thankamma Thomas, Late. Mrs Chinnamma Mathew & Late. Mrs. Ponnamma Thomas.

She was a model of a selfless wife, mother, daughter, sister and a friend. She cherished and gave her all to those who came across her path. Her strong faith in Jesus Christ brought her through all the joys and challenges she faced in the journey on this earth.

We will all deeply miss her love, devotion, encouragement and guidance. We are all truly blessed to be a part of her life and know that she is with the Lord, our Savior.

After six years of her battle against cancer, on July 11th 2011, at 12:06 am, she went home to be with her Master.
